A certificate of attendance will be given at the end of the Congress.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Congress venue is centrally located in Bari at the Aula Magna "Aldo Cossu", Università di Bari, P.zza Umberto 1. Bari is located in South Italy (Puglia) and is very charming city. Walking through the street of Bari means feeling the local culture history and tradition, art and architecture, but also typical food.

Bari can be easily reached by plane, train and car. Direct flights connected Bari Carol Wojtyla International Airport with several Italian and European cities.

The Congress will start on the afternoon of Wednesday 22nd with two plenary lectures and will continue on Thursday 23th and Friday 24th with further plenary lectures, short lectures, poster presentations and round table on the most recent issues related to botanicals and phytochemicals.

The official language is English; no simultaneous translation will be provided.

Additional information is available on the Congress website from the middle of March 2022.
